Hanover, July 1, N. S.

ON Tuesday the 28th of last Month, M. Von Stuterheim, Grand Marshal to the Duke of Saxe Eisenach, who was sent hither on the Part of his most Serene Highness, to compliment the King on his safe Arrival in his German Dominions, had his Audience of Leave of his Majesty, and set out next Morning for his Court, well satisfied with the Reception he had met with here. The same Day in the Evening Prince Frederick, Son to Prince William of Hesse, took his Leave of his Majesty, and set out Yesterday Morning for Cassel. Yesterday at Noon the Deputies of the City of Hambourg, sent to compliment his Majesty on his Arrival here, had their Audience of the King; after which, Prince Lubomirsky and General Bauditz were presented to his Majesty.

General Post-Office, June 26, 1735.

This is to give Notice, That the Post will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, from Monday the 30th of June Instant, inclusive, during the Summer Season, as usual.

Whitehall, June 19, 1735.

Whereas three several Letters, not subscribed with any Name or Names, were sent or dropt, on the 5th Day of this Instant June, in the City of York, one of them directed to Mr. William Hotham, Hozier-Lane, another of them directed to Mr. Thomas Smith, Grocer, Hozier-Lane, York, and the third not directed, but beginning with the Words Mr. Hotham, and all demanding Money to be laid in certain Places therein mentioned, and threatning them with Death, or to set their Houses on Fire, in case of Non-compliance with such Demands: Her Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Crimes, is pleased to promise her most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall discover the Person or Persons, or any of them, who knowingly sent or dropt the said Letters, or any of them, so as they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said Reward to be paid by Mr. Darcy Preston, Town Clerk of the said City. —— And the said Letters are now lodged at the Lord Mayor's Office at the Guildhall in the said City, for the Inspection of any Person or Persons desirous to see the same.

Victualling-Office, June 27, 1735.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 30th Day of July next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in writing, sealed up, at their Office on Tower-Hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve His Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheshire Cheese, for the Year ensuing, ending at Michaelmas 1736.

Navy-Office, June 25, 1735.

These are to give Notice, That the Widows of such Sea Officers, whose Husbands died before the 30th of August 1732, and are entitled to the Bounty Money, will be paid the same at the Pay Office in Broad-street, on Tuesday the 1st of July next, between the Hours of Ten and Two, and every Tuesday afterwards, between the same Hours.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Lease or Grant, the Liberty of Lighting the City of London, and Liberties thereof, with Globular Glass Lamps, according to the Pattern or Specimen in the Comptroller's Office in the Guildhall London, for Twenty One Years from Midsummer 1736; which said Lamps are to be light up every Night at the setting of the Sun, from the 10th Day of August to the 10th Day of April in every Year, and are to continue burning until One of the Clock in the Morning, and are to be set up at the Distance of Thirty Yards from each other, on each Side of the Street, even with the Posts of the Foot Passage in the great or High Streets, and in the smaller and lesser Streets not exceeding the Distance of Thirty five Yards, or as the Alderman, Deputy, and Common-Council-men of each Ward shall direct. And that the said Committee will sit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall aforesaid on the 23d Day of July next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals for the Purposes aforesaid; and in the mean time the Pattern or Specimen may be seen at the Comptroller's Office aforesaid.
